

As a rural customer, we need the local weather information that XM radio provides as the local stations do not cover it as well. Make the local stations compete for our business. Not the government grant them our business.